

Socio-Economic Contributions

Proudly, in the 2017/2018 financial year The Waves Sports Club reinvested heavily into the local community, including contributions to over 100 local individuals and organisations and supporting local businesses through the purchase of local goods and services, including locally farmed meat and produce. Also included was $717,416 donated in cash and in-kind support of The Waves' 16 affiliated Sub Clubs, $513,465 towards non-affiliated community organisations and a further $33,199 towards non-affiliated sporting organisations.

The Waves also employed 87 local people who received $32,478 in training and development and $17,100 on its ongoing staff bursary program.
